

$580,000 Voted For New School In Mysticside By 129 To 24 Vote

She'd Like Airplane Ride

OBSERVING HER 95th BIRTHDAY yesterday, Miss Caroline Blaine of 16 Jason St. confided to a Press reporter that the most wonderful birthday gift she could think of would be to be taken up for a ride in an airplane. . . an experience she's never enjoyed. Born in Scotland in 1853, Miss Blaine has been in Arlington 23 years and formerly lived on Westminister Ave., in the Heights. She's in remarkably good health, likes to crochet and enjoys the radio—all but jazz music. Girls in her day, she says, "managed to have a good time without drinking, or doing other things considered quite normal today." In photo above, Miss Blaine happily looks over one of the many birthday cards she received. Members of the Fidelis Class of Arlington Heights Baptist Church held open house in her honor Sunday.

By a vote of 129 to 24, members of the town meeting voted Monday night a $580,000 appropriation to proceed immediately with long-contemplated construction of a modern new elementary school in the Mysticside district, which it is expected to be completed by the fall of 1949.

A two-third vote, or 102 votes, were required for the appropriation, so that the 129 represented 24 more than necessary.

Considerable discussion preceded the appropriation, and members of the special committee which drew up plans for the school frankly admitted that the cost was high, though arguing that a new school had long been needed and could no longer be deferred. The type of construction, too, is to be of the best.

WAS IT A VOTE, OR A GROAN?

Appropriation after appropriation was voted, in rapid succession, at last Friday's town meeting.

Funds had been approved for the police department, for public works, for engineering. Moderator Ernest W. Davis put another department's request to a vote; it was a routine item, and the 'ayes' were half-hearted.

"I can't tell," exclaimed Moderator Davis, "if you're saying 'aye' or just groaning."

Sunday Bowling Now Legal In Arlington; Is Voted 97 To 43

It is perfectly legal now in Arlington to bowl on Sundays.

By a vote of 97 to 43, members of town meeting voted Monday night to legalize Sunday bowling in this town.

The vote, on acceptance of Section 4B of Chapter 136 of the General Laws, relative to the licensed operation on the Lord's Day of bowling alleys, was taken without discussion.

A member of the meeting questioned the oral vote, however, so that a standing vote was taken, and a count showed 97 in favor as against 43 opposed.

The board of selectmen may now proceed to issue licenses for Sunday bowling, on application.

Turn Thumbs Down On Turnpike Stores

Opposed by the Planning Board as a project that would create a dangerous traffic bottleneck on the Concord Pike, near the Lexington line, a plan to establish a retail business district in that area known as Arlmont Village, was voted down in town meeting Monday.

John L. Murphy, recently elected member of the board of public works, spoke as attorney for the Ridge Associates, refraining from voting as a town meeting member. He stressed the point that many homes have been built in the section, with more to be built, and that "there is real need of a drug store and a few other readily-accessible retail stores."

Secretary John O. Parker of the Planning Board, opposing a zoning change from residential to business, said that the board could see the advisability of nearby stores "but not on the turnpike." He said that, last year, a count showed 23,000 vehicles passing the spot in one day, and that a count next summer probably would show 35,000.

A final showdown showed 76 votes in favor of making the zone change, but 100 votes were needed so that the motion was lost.

Minstrels By Legion

Arlington American Legion will hold its first minstrel show in mid-May, it was announced this week.

The show will be staged in town hall, and any and all who are interested in taking part in the performance are asked to report at the high school hall tonight, Thursday, at 7:30 for initial rehearsals.

George Bonnel is committee chairman, James L. Spriggs secretary and William Finn director.

Police Lieut. Daniel Barry Dies; Stricken 6 Wks. Ago, End Comes In Sudden Relapse; Rites Monday

The police department lost one of its best and most popular officers and Arlington lost a beloved and respected citizen, when Police Lieut. Daniel P. Barry, who had been believed to be recovering from a heart attack which struck him six weeks ago, suffered a sudden relapse yesterday noon (Wednesday) and died at 3:30 p. m.

His host of friends were consoled to some degree by the fact that his dying moments were devoid of pain, and that he had time to receive the last Sacraments of the Catholic Church, administered by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Matthew J. Flaherty, pastor of St. Agnes Church.

WIFE AT BEDSIDE

At his bedside during his last moments was his wife, who since he was suddenly stricken Feb. 11 had been his constant sickroom attendant, and Dr. Daniel Shea, who was summoned when the patient's condition took a sudden turn for the worse. Dr. Shea, after doing what he could to ease the dying man, sorrowfully had to pronounce him dead.

As soon as news of his death reached police headquarters, Chief Archie F. Bullock hurried to the Barry residence at 58 Webcowet Rd. The Chief was one of Lieut. Barry's most steadfast friends and admirers: they worked in close harmony during all of Lieut. Barry's 30 years on the force.

Also congregated in the sorrow-ridden home, within a few minutes were the lieutenant's father, Daniel his sister, Miss Margaret Barry, and two of his brothers, John and William. A third brother, Fred, of Scituate, was notified.

Lieut. and Mrs. Barry had no children.

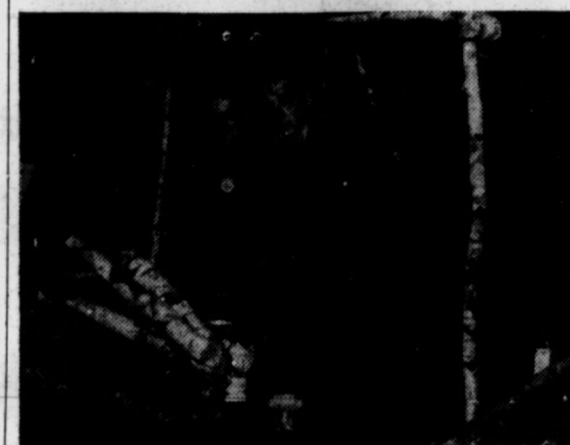

FUNERAL ON MONDAY

Funeral services will be held Monday, with a solemn high mass of requiem at St. Agnes Church. The time of the services, however, had not been set as this issue went to press. Grannan's Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

There will be a wake at the family home Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings. A large contingent of police will be mustered out for a departmental funeral.

25 New Firemen, Not 35, To Be Named By June 1; 48-Hr. Week Adds But 70 Cents To Tax Rate

As a result of conferences between Fire Chief Daniel B. Tierney and members of the board of selectmen, only 25 new men—instead of 35—will be added to the fire department June 1, when the 48-hour work week goes in effect, it now develops.

Six new firemen are due to be appointed April 1, to fill existing vacancies, but the new contingent made necessary by the shorter work schedule will consist of only 25—a saving of ten men compared with original plans.

It was brought out at last Friday's town meeting by J. Howard

Hayes, chairman of the finance committee, that the additional men would entail an increased 1948 expenditure of $40,591—which, he said, means 70 cents on the tax rate.

The department's budget, as approved, amounts to $160,060.92.

Mailman Saves Dog From Brook; Wades Out, Finds $5 'Reward'

A good deed brought a prompt reward last Friday for 23-year-old ex-GI Bill Hughes of 94 Franklin St., a mail carrier, when he rescued a drowning dog from a brook here and, wading out, found a $5 bill waiting for him on the bank.

A temporary carrier and a disabled vet, Hughes was making his rounds with his mail bag when he spotted the dog, which had broken through the ice on a brook near the dye works.

He took the strap off his mail bag and, wading out up to his knees, threw the end of the strap to the struggling dog. The animal seized it, and was pulled up onto stronger ice and then toward shore. It was as the drenched young mailman reached shore with the dog that he spotted a $5 bill on the ground. It had obviously been lost by someone—but no reward ever came more promptly.

All-Night Prayers In Catholic Churches To Usher In Good Friday

Dangerous 'Safety' Isles

The so-called "safety" isles at trolley car stops along Mass. Ave. could more properly be called "danger isles" as far as motorists are concerned.

The strip of concrete reserved for waiting passengers is, of course, a sensible idea. It would not do to have commuters standing out in the midst of traffic.

But the heavily reinforced concrete uprights, at the ends of the safety isles, are about as safe for motorists as huge boulders dropped in their path.

Crashing into one of these isles is like hitting an immovable wall—as drivers of two autos found out last week, at Mass. Ave. and Lake St., when injuries sent three men to hospitals.

In some other cities, these same uprights are made strong enough to halt a car, but not so strong and unyielding as to wreck the car or kill its occupants.

Can We Do Anything About It?

Many a man has a pet scheme—an idea for community betterment, let us say—that he dreams may some day materialize. Not for personal profit, but because he believes in the idea and believes his home town would be better for it.

We came across a man with such an idea the other day. And this is his idea: It would be a fine thing, a friendly and an appreciated development, if—somehow some of the bands and orchestras we have in Arlington could be induced to put on a series of open-air evening concerts during the summer months.

We have some good musical aggregations here. They are seen and applauded in parades; they would be enjoyed more often. If they volunteered, each of them, to put on say two concerts a summer, the neighborly gesture would be most appreciated.

As our friends put it: "There are a lot of families that have enough for the necessities of life, but when it comes to recreation they can't afford to spend much. Summer concerts, in various parts of town, would bring them real pleasure."

No Argument At All

In the heat of discussion over town salaries, at last Friday's meeting, one remark was voiced which was definitely in poor taste.

The remark was: "If any town employees don't like their jobs here, they're free to leave and take jobs elsewhere."

This sort of argument could have but one effect, and it did: it INCENSED those advocating living wages for town workers, and won them additional votes. It was not surprising a few minutes later, when the vote on permanent pay increases was taken, that only two or three voices were raised half-heartedly in opposition.

An Arbitrary Generality

It is easy for the chairman of Boston's licensing board, Mary E. Driscoll, to make a broad statement such as she voiced last week:

"I believe that grandma or some other member of the family should sit with the kiddies, and if they won't it wouldn't do the parents any harm to stay home."

What about young couples away from home and grandmas? What about parents who have no relatives handy to help as baby sitters would Miss Driscoll arbitrarily condemn them to a life devoid of recreation?

200 Attend 18th Annual VFW Dinner

Two hundred persons attended the 18th annual banquet of Arlington Post, VFW, and auxiliary held Wednesday of last week in the old town hall.

State Dept. Commander William F. Hallisey was the principal speaker. President Hazel Babbitt of the state auxiliary and other state and county officials were present. The selectmen were represented by Joseph Peterson and Joseph Purcell, and the board of public works by John Murphy and Thomas O'Neil.

Entertainment included songs by Dick Smith, and by Mrs. Alice Olsen and her daughter Jean. Sgt. Major William Hamilton of the Dutch East Indian Army, who was a Japanese prisoner of war, gave an enjoyable impersonation. Dancing till midnight concluded the affair.

Edward J. Kelly

Funeral services were held last morning, Thursday, for Edward J. Kelly of 6 Raleigh St., for 15 years a state boiler inspector, who died Sunday after a prolonged illness.

A native of Boston, Mr. Kelly had lived here 21 years. He was a member of Arlington Lodge of Elks, was held in high esteem. Failing health had prevented him from working since last summer.

Survived only by his wife, Mrs. Cecelia (Foley) Kelly, Mr. Kelly was placed at final rest in Holy Cross Cemetery, Malden, following a solemn high mass of requiem at St. Agnes Church.

Town Employees To Receive $280 Permanent Pay Boosts April 1, Instead Of Uncertain Bonuses

Junior High Center Will Be Improved

After discussion had emphasized the need of major improvements at Junior High School Center, members of the town meeting on Monday voted to appoint a committee, with a working fund of $5,000, to draw up definite plans for improvements.

The scheduled improvements, to which the town now is virtually committed, include an adequate gymnasium or auditorium.

The school now has no showers or locker rooms, no facilities for a physical program, and its makeshift gym was described as "a glorified old coal bin."

Admit Mrs. Vahey To Law Practice In Federal Courts

Mrs. Joseph S. Vahey of 268 Oakland Ave., who has been a member of the Mass. bar several years and is engaged in the practice of law with her husband in Boston, last week was admitted to practice before the U. S. federal courts.

Mrs. Vahey is the wife of Joseph S. Vahey, commander of Arlington Post 1775, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Over-riding a recommendation of the town finance committee that municipal employees again receive a temporary pay bonus this year, members of the Town Meeting voted in a virtually unanimous action Friday to give town employees permanent pay raises averaging $280 a year.

The vote to replace uncertain, year-by-year bonuses with permanent raises came after an impassioned plea by George Reynolds, president of the Municipal Employees' Association, and an eloquent summing up by George A. Harris, a leader of the Citizens' Committee; who insisted the time had come for such action.

There were sharp clashes between members of the Salary Committee, which favored the permanent increases, and J. Howard Hayes, chairman of the finance committee, which wanted to continue bonuses.

Reynolds, a member of the salary committee, assailed the finance committee for "refusing to listen to any compromise," adding that "we've been forced to come here before you, fighting every inch of the way." Town workers, he said, "couldn't meet expenses" and bonuses are "too uncertain."

Hayes hit back with a retort that the salary committee "is conniving to foist something premature on the town." This was received with such noisy disapproval that Moderator Ernest W. Davis had to intervene.

The effect of Friday's vote is to "freeze" last year's bonuses, and the cost to the town will be about the same as last year's salaries and bonus combined.

The permanent pay raise takes effect April 1. It applies to all town employees with the exception of school teachers, who received permanent raises last year.

School janitors and clerks are not included in the raises, and this caused School Committee Chairman Joseph Bevins to rise from the floor, objecting that "all low-salaried town workers should be treated alike." His board, he said, had not had time to prepare necessary motions.

Mr. Hayes, finance committee chairman, declared flatly of the proposal for permanent increases: "We are not in favor of it at this time. It is premature. There has been no time to consider. Too many inequalities must be ironed out."

At another point, Mr. Hayes said that "any town employees who aren't satisfied with what we pay them here are free to leave and go to work for other towns. I don't see any of them leaving."

Harris in a forceful summing up just before the vote was taken said:

"I think that 1948 should be the year we quit kidding ourselves about what is normal and what is not. I agree that present living costs are inflated, but we'll never again see butter at 45 cents, eggs at 50 cents and steak at 49 cents a pound. A bonus lift is just like putting a patch on a patch."

"Let us establish this year a wage rate as recommended by our salary committee, based somewhere near realities. Let us incorporate it

Vote Down $1500 For Memorial

The idea of singling out any one hero of World War II to be honored with a monument—even so outstanding a hero as the late Commander John J. Shea, USN—made no hit with members of the town meeting Monday, and a requested $1500 appropriation was voted down.

Said one town meeting member: "Many of us lost boys in the war. These boys, wherever placed, did their full duty and more. They gave their all. There can be no greater heroism, no greater sacrifice than theirs. To single out one among them for special honor would be a sacrilege. Only God Almighty can say who was the greatest hero."

Architect John H. Shea, who sponsored the idea of a memorial marker on Medford St., off Warren St., said he was willing to donate his services and that his sole object was to render honor to a hero who brought great credit upon the town.

The finance committee recommended against an appropriation and the committee's chairman, J.

into the basic wage structure."

Only two or three weakly-voiced 'nays' could be heard when the vote was taken.

Howard Hayes, was placed in a rather ironical position when he was asked to introduce a substitute motion by Mr. Shea for the appropriation. Shea, not a town meeting member, could not introduce the motion himself, so Mr. Hayes found himself not only introducing a motion against his own committee's, but reading off also a list of veterans' organizations endorsing the memorial idea.

$11,000 Appropriated For Car Parking Lot In Business Center

Parking congestion in Arlington Center will shortly be relieved.

A $11,000 appropriation was voted at Monday's final session of town meeting to construct a municipal parking lot on the Pierce and Winn property, so-called, at Mystic St. and Mass. Ave.

The project is to be carried out by the board of public works. The appropriation was recommended by the finance committee, and voted without discussion.

Several buildings now on the property will be razed to make room for the parking lot.

FELICITATIONS ARE BEING RECEIVED by Miss Elizabeth Anne Evans, whose engagement to Mr. George William King was announced recently by her mother, Mrs. C. Frederic Evans of Arlington.

Miss Evans was graduated from Middlebury College and is now employed in statistical research at M. I. T. Her fiancé, son of Mrs. Franklin G. King of West Lafayette, Ind. and the late Mr. King is a graduate of Purdue University. A former naval Lieutenant, Mr. King is an instructor at M. I. T.

Wedding plans are being made for early in the spring.

ANNOUNCING THE ENGAGEMENT of their daughter, Virginia Marie, to Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius J. Coleman of Arlington who make known her troth to Mr. Edmund Bennett Jr.

Mr. Bennett is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Bennett, also of Arlington.

OF LOCAL INTEREST, is the announcement from Billerica, by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Lunt of the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Ann to Mr. Philip Richard Waugaman of Arlington.

The prospective bride is a graduate of the LeJan-Powers School of Radio and Theater.

A veteran of Army service in Europe, Mr. Waugaman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Waugaman of Hillside Ave., is attending the University of Massachusetts.

Thieves forced their way into the Texaco gas station at 264 Mass Ave., sometime between 7 Sunday night and 7 Monday morning, and an inventory was being taken to determine if any tires were taken. The intruders tried to force open several windows, on which they left their mark, and finally succeeded in entering by breaking three locks on one of the windows.

Mrs. Giordano of 20 Crosby St. reported an attempt was made to enter her home late Saturday night, and a citizen told police he saw four young boys trying to break into a gas station on the Concord Pike, at the Arlington-Cambridge line.

Mrs. Mildred Vinton Drew of 2 Morton Rd., a music teacher at St. Ann's convent, reported the loss of valuable sheet music from her car, which was rifled while the machine was parked near the convent Sunday.

Community Chest Due To Pick Officers

Rev. Roy M. Pearson, pastor of Hancock Congregational Church Lexington, will be guest speaker at the twelfth annual meeting of Arlington Community Chest, Tuesday evening, March 30 at 8 in the hearing room of Robbins Memorial Town Hall.

A new comer to this part of the state, Rev. Mr. Pearson who was formerly with the Congregational Church in Amherst, is much in demand as a speaker because of his original presentation of current interests.

The meeting is open to all interested, including delegates from Arlington's Red Feather services: Boys' Club, Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, Girl Scouts, St. James Branch of Massachusetts Catholic woman's Guild, Social Service League, St. Agnes Conference of St. Vincent de Paul and Visiting Nurse Association.

Officers and directors will be elected for the coming year at a brief business meeting presided over by Benjamin F. Hickey, president.

Amateur Show

An amateur show will feature the April meeting of the Arlington Community Center, in American Legion hall. The Center's Cultural Group will meet April 12 with Mrs. Ethel Spector, 33 Elmore St., when Mrs. Ruth Gerah will speak on "Enjoyment of Music."

A men's discussion group is being formed, and anyone interested may contact Martin Tagerman, Le-nor Robbins or Harry Perlmuter.

BUSINESS MEN ARE INTERESTING

Since pre-war days, the business of Gordon's Furniture—at Mass. Ave. and Franklin St. just ten years. Associated with the elder Gordon, who has been in the furniture business 23 years, is his son Lewis. The personnel includes also Leon Barili, salesman, and Mrs. Lucy Vanni, bookkeeper.

There are two large floors in Gordon's, for in addition to the main showroom a spacious basement also is utilized for the display of bedroom and dining room furniture, occasional pieces, kitchen ranges and refrigerators, juvenile furniture and a wide range of floor coverings.

Do You Really Understand Boy Scouts? Exposition On Saturday Helped Tell Story

The Scout Exposition held at town hall last Saturday gave the citizens of Arlington a grand opportunity to become better acquainted with the complete Boy Scout program.

It is a fact that many of our "good citizens", here and in neighboring communities, did not have the privilege of participating in scouting activities during younger days—and those that did have that pleasure are not aware of the many changes that have taken place in recent years.

"Scouting," as the program is known today, takes in boys from the age of 19 to 18 years and up, and is divided into three groups—namely, the Cub program for boys 9 to 12, the regular Boy Scouts, ages 12 to 15 and older, and what is known as Senior Scout units.

The entire program is growing, to meet the demand of the times. It is a MUST for this town.

While the leaders of Scouting in Arlington want to open the doors of Scouting to 300 more boys this year, there is a crying need for more adult leadership. Unfortunately many of our fine citizens honestly believe they are not qualified for such duties. It is hoped that their visit to the exposition here last Saturday did convince them of the many opportunities available, whereby they can take active part in helping boys build a better future for America. There is not a vocation or profession that does not in some way lend its skills to the growing boy.

To those who sincerely say: "I know nothing about Boy Scout program," let it be pointed out that there are only two essentials: A genuine interest in the growing boy, and willingness to spend time and effort to help your own boy or your neighbor's boy to get more clean fun out of his childhood.

The Cub program depends primarily on the women of our community as "Den Mothers," for this program is an afternoon affair.

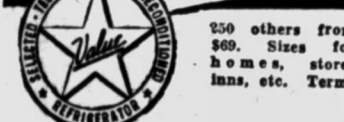

The older groups afford the men a wonderful opportunity to work for and play with the boys of our town—and what better way can a father grow closer to his son than by participating in his son's activities. If a man has no son of his own, here is a splendid opportunity to adopt as many as he wants.

Red Cross Quota In Sight; $11,815 Raised

The Arlington Red Cross fund drive for the town's quota of $12,600 had on Tuesday reached a total of $11,815, or 93.8 per cent of the goal, Timothy W. Good, Jr., vice-president of the Harvard Trust Company and chairman of the campaign announced at a report luncheon at the Boston City Club.

With the drive scheduled to end next Wednesday, Chairman Good asked for an all-out effort in the closing days to place Arlington in the victory column by oversubscribing the $12,600 quota. At the same time, he expressed gratitude to the scores of volunteer, unpaid workers associated with him in the campaign.

Both Chairman Good and Mrs. Allen H. Thomson, associate chairman, have invited all Arlington Red Cross workers and their friends to attend an open house at the Robbins Library Hall on Sunday, April 4, from 4 to 6 p. m.

Range That Keeps On Cooking After Gas Is Turned Off Will Be Demonstrated Next Week

A free cooking demonstration and exposition of the famed gas-saving Chambers range will be given at 7:30 p. m. on April 1 and 2 next Thursday and Friday—at the showrooms of the Paragon Gas and Electric Co., 398 Highland Ave., Davis Sq., Somerville.

All interested housewives are invited to attend, without obligation. There will be prizes, and the food cooked in the demonstration also will be served to those in attendance.

Frank McGivern, who heads the Paragon Co., is very proud of the Chambers range and what it can do, compared with other makes of gas ranges. In cooking a four-pound roast of pork, for instance, it will be shown at the demonstration that this is accomplished in but 20 minutes, and with a shrinkage of only a quarter of a pound.

The demonstration will be conducted by Miss Betty Mack, a home economics expert from the Chambers factory.

"The Chambers range," says Mr. McGivern, "is the only range manufactured in the gas industry which is insulated on all six sides. It is of colonial design, vacuum sealed, with vault type oven enclosure. Its remarkable savings in gas consumption are effected by the fact that this unusual range cooks while the gas is shut off. Meals may be prepared while the housewife is away. The bunsen type burners save 80 per cent of the gas over any known type of burner on the market."

Associated with Mr. McGivern are Gilbert W. Hansen of Arlington, and Joseph (Father) Flanagan, formerly of Arlington.

'Wish We Had More Of 'Em...'

BOB R. AND BOB E. LONGPRE, owners of the fast-expanding Arrow Motors at 36 Mass. Ave., proudly pose for the photographer with one of the latest streamlined Pontiacs, for which they are local Agency. Arrow motors is taking over additional space, to more than double its present floor room. This reflects a great increase in its service department. The sales of new Pontiacs naturally is limited by the number that the company can obtain.

Nearly 1000 Members In Boys' Club

Enrollment at the Arlington Boys' Club this year is now expected to reach the 1,000 membership mark—an all time record.

Since the first of the year, some 700 boys ranging from eight years to and through the high school ages have already taken out 1948 memberships, Director Jim Sumner discloses.

Interest of the boy members in its games and space to blow off steam in a safe way and also to develop the physical needs, to the games rooms and the bowling alleys, to the vocational classes, with their friendly instructors and the delight of accomplishment.

Also a favorite of many of the members, and usually patronized by between 300 and 350 boys is the regular Friday night movie show. Pictures are selected with care to insure showing a story that any boy would enjoy.

Special events such as the recent father and son dinner, the coming Easter egg hunt on Easter Saturday morning, and the Mother and Son Dinner Party which is set for April 7, are also great favorites with the boys.

Scooping Around Arlington High

with KATHLEEN KIRSCHBAUM

See those three fellows over there in the corner of Room 52? Who are they? Why, the "Bunnell, Cahaly, Collins" trio, of course. Most of their "50" classmates know them as the three lads with enough energy to make any teacher wish he'd chosen a different vocation. Lets take a peak behind the scenes, though, to get a glimpse of their more serious activities.

Bob Bunnell, for instance, took enough of an interest in animals to secure a position as a veterinarian's aid. Out of school he's a hockey enthusiast and, as a A.Y.A. member plays baseball. His ninth grade class prophesied, that he will some day become President, may not hold true, but his duties of treasurer in his church fellowship deserves mention. After three years at AHS in a College 2 course of study, this brown-eyed lad entertains hopes of attending Wesleyan University where he'll major in English.

Second in the group is dark-haired Eddie Cahaly, whom you will be able to pick out in the chorus of "The Gondoliers", the Gilbert and Sullivan Club's April 2 and 3 presentation. Eddie was a member of the freshman football team last year and has joined "Toz's" boys for the '48-'49 season. Like Bob, he plans to further his education by attending college, Springfield being his choice of an Alma Mater. Maybe AHS will see Ed again a few years hence if he follows his ambition to become a physical ed instructor.

Now it's time for the fair (because of his blond hair and blue eyes, naturally) member of the "three musketeers": Jimmy Collins. His freshman class prophesied that he would become a Bruins hockey player. Jim is interested in hockey, but at present he forges a Navy career for himself. You'll have to see him personally to discover his activities, for he offered only the facts that he loves to eat and get into mischief.

So it goes with a merry "three some" in the class of '50, that really gives the impression that "life is grand" and every minute of it a joy.

A.H.S. has broken all records. It went over the top in the Junior Red Cross Drive to the tune of $110.54. Crawford Coombes '48, Joan Gurich '49, and Miss Kelly, the tireless sponsors of this charitable drive, received their reward in results.

Florence Seaver '47 will play violin with the Arlington High School orchestra for the coming Gilbert and Sullivan production, April 2 and 3. Miss Seaver, now a freshman at Regis College was first violinist for Mr. Einzig last year.

Early in March, Marilyn Koburn, Anita Kasparian, Joan Flentje, Jacqueline La Rue, and Olympia Dukakis spent a delightful week-end of sports at Peterborough, N. H. These AHS girls took advantage of a twenty-dollar week-end which included board, room, transportation some skiing, skating, and instruction if desired.

At last Thursday's meeting of the Arlington Women's Club a sizable group of girls, all members of the high school glee club, entertained with varied musical selections. Marion Slattery and Nancy Richmond previewed the talent to be found in the G. and S. April presentation with their respective solos, "Jalousy" and "Il Bacio." The entire Glee Club, directed by Mr. Russell, sang "Sympathy", "The Lord's Prayer", and "Loves Own Sweet Song."

Congratulations to Crawford Coombes who has been made editor of "We Serve", the Boston Metropolitan Junior Red Cross publication.

Lively debaters held a discussion last Thursday—resolved: "We Should Feed Europe." James Het-herman, and Seto Javian took the affirmative stand; Frances Florence and Eleanor Mahoney, the negative.

meeting is about to finish up?

I WONDER how it would be to tack on numbers on the backs of town committee members, so that when one of them gets up to speak the reporters present would be able to quote them by name?

Open House At Elliott Studio

Continued expansion during his first year in business has forced Robert Elliott to open a new and enlarged photography studio at 211 Belmont street, whose facilities make it one of the most modern studios in the east.

Now located in the building which was the residence of the late Dr. Cunningham, Elliott has completely remodeled the quarters in order to provide better service.

Navy Expert

An official Navy photographer during the war, Elliott entered the School of Modern Photography in New York following his discharge. In addition to graduating from that school, Elliott studied portraiture and commercial photography and also took a special course in color photography. Extending his knowledge, he studied color and oil paint privately with a New York artist. He is also a graduate of the University of Michigan School of Photography.

Elliott is a member of the Photographic Society of America, the Massachusetts Photographers' Association, the New England Photographers' Association and the Photographers' Association of America.

Modern Advancements

Equipment at the Elliott Studio represents the most modern advancements in the science of photography now available. The several cameras may be used for portrait or commercial work and are equipped with high speed lenses.

All lights are the product of Bardwell and McAlister of Hollywood and provide an infinite variety of lighting effects. In addition to the mammoth boom lights, the specialized Keg-lite broad beam and large flood lights, Elliott has also installed special lights for backgrounds.

Rapid Processing
Four new darkrooms have been constructed, which will enable efficient and rapid processing of pictures. The darkrooms are equipped with the latest type printing, finishing, negative and washing facilities.

Open House

At the studio open house on March 27, 28 and 29, the "travelling salon" of the Photographers' Association of America, comprising 50 of the country's outstanding pictures, will be displayed along with an extensive showing of photographs taken by the Elliott Studio. The public has been cordially invited to attend the open house and inspect this complete, new and modern photography studio.

Success Of Scout Exposition Surpasses All Expectations

Pack 7 of the Cub Scouts, sponsored by St. Agnes Church, won the president's award and first prize for the cub group at Saturday's Boy Scout Exposition—the most comprehensive and best scout exhibit in Arlington's history.

About 5,000 adults and children, it is estimated, visited the exposition during the afternoon and evening, and visiting scout officials were amazed both at the splendid and numerous exhibits and at the great attendance.

A center of interest was the circus exhibit staged by Pack 7, complete to the last miniature figure. Donald Burke is cubmaster of Pack

Second prize in the cub group went to Pack 83, George McManis, cubmaster, sponsored by Hardy PTA, and third prize to Pack 87, sponsored by Cutter PTA, with Theodore Foster cubmaster.

First prize for Boy Scout troops went to Troop 13, sponsored by St. James Church, with Arthur MacDonald scoutmaster; second prize

J. Howard Hayes, chairman of the finance committee, when called upon to explain how the cost would be financed, said that by utilizing available funds and borrowing more, only $25,000 of the amount would be raised through direct taxation this year... and this, he said, would raise the tax rate only 4 or 50 cents this year. Interest for bonds may add 20 to 40 cents more, or total additional cost to taxpayers in 1948 of from 65 to 90 cents.

Harold M. Estabrook, chairman of the special committee which drew up plans and costs, explained that a number of reputable architects and contractors had been consulted. The type of building proposed, he said, has been designed to fit the locality and the shape of the site.

He explained there would be eight classrooms, but that with extra rooms for library, etc., there would eventually be 12 rooms in use. The auditorium will be in a separate building, away from the classrooms.

Several town meeting members rose to say that there was no question of the need of a new school, but that the cost was high. George A. Harris, after calling for a breakdown of figures to show the effect of the appropriation on taxpayers, said that he believed action had been deferred long enough.

School Committee Chairman Joseph Bevins, in answer to questions, said there were 150 children in the area now who would attend the new school—to be known as the Bishop School—and that by fall of 1949 the number should have risen to 200.

Some pupils, he said, may be shifted from Cutler St. School, and the old Russell School "built six years after the Civil War" will be closed. The school board, he said, has not yet definitely decided on new school lines.

One town meeting member referred to the proposed school as looking "like a prosperous farmhouse with a barn," a remark which brought a laugh, and several criticized its cost, but when it came to a vote the motion for an appropriation was carried with a safe margin.

to Troop 2, sponsored by Trinity Baptist Church with John M. Wilfert Jr. as scoutmaster, and third prize to Troop 8, Pleasant St. Congregational Church, George F. Fitch scoutmaster.

In the senior scout group Explorer Post 3 sponsored by Pierce PTA, with Robert J. Sroack leader, captured top honors. Air Scout 69, sponsored by the Elks and led by Harland Smith, won second honor and third prize went to Sea Scout 37, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club and skippered by Richard S. Brown.

The exhibitions were all so outstanding that the judges had to make three inspection trips before deciding the winners.

June, 1917, but had previously served as a special policeman. He was appointed a sergeant in 1928, and a lieutenant in 1934.

A FRIEND OF YOUTH

During World II he did a splendid job as coordinator for the Auxiliary Police, and at the end of the war was one of the prime movers in forming the Arlington Youth Association—sponsored by the Auxiliary Police.

During recent years he had been assigned largely to desk duty at headquarters.

PROMINENT IN ELKS

He was a very prominent figure in the Benevolent Order of Elks, being a past exalted ruler of the Arlington lodge, a past district deputy and an honorary life member of the Elks of America.

A large contingent of the Mass. State Elks Association will be at the funeral, with many lodges throughout this area represented.

On Honor Roll At JHS East

Fourteen students at Junior High East made the first honor roll for the January-February period. They were:

Grade 9, Joan Iannessa, Claire McHugh, Jean Paton, Valerie Robbins; Grade 8, Walter Gannon, Rosamond Hanlon; grade 7, William Bielinski, Janet DeCosta, Phyllis Ferrarini, Miriam Hamm, Barbara Judd, Robin MacStravic, Gladys Medzorian, Dorothy Perry.

On the second honor roll are: Grade 8, Mary Green, Marjorie Hewey, Anne Hoton, Thelma Lambertson; William McHugh; grade 7, Robert Cooke, Sally Florenza, Geraldine Fitzgerad, Mirable Hathaway. Constance MacDonald, Richard Neal, Evelyn O'Keefe, Sophia Olson, Joseph Orolano, Elizabeth Salmon, Shirley Silva, Lawrence Weissbach, Charles Williams.

Donate Clothes

Gifts of clothing, toys and other articles were brought to the March meeting of the Missionary Auxiliary of Trinity Baptist Church. Some of the items will be distributed to members of the Metropolitan Baptist Church of Roxbury, a Negro congregation, while others will be sold at a rummage sale for the benefit of the Metropolitan Christian Center.

Rev. M.J. Minor, minister of the Roxbury church, was a guest at the meeting, as were members of Shiloh Baptist Church in West Medford and a group of women from the Arlington Jewish Center.

Mrs. B. L. Dennehy

Funeral services for Mrs. Bridget L. (Gill) Dennehy, 76, who died March 13, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Anna Keefe of 88 Chandler St., were held March 15, with a solemn high mass of requiem at St. Peter's Church, Cambridge, at 9 o'clock and burial in Cambridge Cemetery.

A native of Ireland, Mrs. Dennehy had lived in this country 63 years and, until coming to Arlington eight months ago, had lived many years in Cambridge. She had been in failing health about a year.

She is survived by her husband, Denis T. Dennehy, and six children; James J. and Frank M. Dennehy of Newton and Mrs. Anna Keefe, Catherine A., Mary M. Dennehy and Mrs. Helen Murphy of Arlington.

Sunrise Services To Mark Easter Dawn

Prayers...

between the hours of 9 p.m. tonight and 7 a.m. Friday.

Churches also will be crowded tomorrow, Good Friday, during the solemn three hours' service from 12 noon to 3 p.m., commemorating Christ's three hours on the Cross. The prayers Holy Thursday night are in commemoration of Christ's sorrow on the night before his death. Early this week, 15,000 members of the Holy Name Society in 400 parishes throughout the Archdiocese had pledged to take part in the "watches."

According to Local Holy Name Directors, the Holy Thursday Vigil, sponsored by the Holy Name Societies, is made up of "Watches" of one-hour duration. Each Watch is comprised of at least three men. Leaders selected from each of the groups will start the prayers and direct the readings.

"The choicest blessings of the Lord," said Archbishop Cushing, "will surely be upon all who respond to His pleading cry, 'Could you not then watch one hour with Me?'"

"The spiritual significance behind this, and indeed behind all Holy Hours," continued the Archbishop, "is based upon the story of our Lord's sufferings in the Garden of Gethsemani."

"In the Gospel, we read of how three of His disciples, Peter, James and John accompanied Christ to the Garden, and while he went through His terrible sufferings for the sins of the world, they fell asleep and were gently reprimanded by Christ with the words, 'Could you not then watch one hour with me?'"

"In memory of our Lord's sorrow on the night before His death and in preparation for the indifference of mankind as represented by the sleeping apostles, I call upon every Holy Name man who can do so to sacrifice one hour of his time Holy Thursday night to watch with Christ present in the Repository on the Altar," Archbishop Cushing said.

Library Displays Model Of House Of Seven Gables

A scale model of the famous House of Seven Gables is now on display at the Robbins Public Library. The model is the work of Walter Scott of Malden and has been lent by the Merle G. Summers Agency of the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company.

The House of Seven Gables is the scene of the well-known novel of the same name by Nathaniel Hawthorne. The model, which is lighted from the inside, shows some of the famous features of the house such as the little shop doorway, the garret window and the secret staircase.

The historic Salem House is now used as a center for settlement work. The House of Seven Gables Settlement Association provides recreation and guidance for many Salem boys and girls. The Summers Agency has been lending the model to libraries along the North Shore as an educational endeavor and to stimulate interest in the Association's work.

The model will be on display at the Robbins Public Library through April 3rd.

'Friendly Family'

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cripps of 77 Sunset Rd., were honored on the "Family Scrapbook" hour of station WCOP Tuesday as a "Friendly Family." The Cripps were nominated by one of their neighbors.

At 6:30 Sunday morning, the United Protestant Youth of Arlington will conduct an Easter Sunrise Service at Menotomy Rocks Park. The call to Worship will be given by representatives of the youth of the Universalists and Unitarian Churches. The invocation will be by Leslie Fredricks, and Trumpet solos by Richard Lamon. Paul Dickie will be the song leader. There will be a Choral Reading by youth of the Heights Churches, and the Litany will be read by First Baptist Church folks.

Rev. David Colwell, pastor of the Pleasant Street Congregational Church, will be the speaker.

Programs are to be provided by the youth of the Pleasant Street Congregational Church, while Trinity Baptist youth are responsible for informing the townspeople of the event.

The significance of Easter, and its message to the World, in these times of world turmoil, cannot be repeated too often, and it is gratifying to find the youth of many religious faiths working together in such a fine Christian spirit.

The United Protestant Youth of Arlington extend to all people a cordial invitation to attend this inspirational meeting.

'Only $860 An Inch' To Clear Away Snow Brings No Applause

The disclosure at town meeting Friday that it cost the town of Arlington "only $860, an inch this year" to remove snow from the streets failed utterly to win any applause, for even at the rate of "only $860 an inch" the snow removal has cost a record of $109,833.47.

J. Howard Hayes, chairman of the finance committee, cited the cost of snow removal while discussing the board of public works budget.

"Since last Fall . . . and up to tonight . . . 128.10 inches of snow have fallen in Arlington," Mr. Hayes told town meeting members. "Snow removal cost $27,516.08 up to Jan. 1, and since January there has been an added expense of $82,318.39."

"The cost of snow removal, however, has been only $860 an inch . . . less than ever before."

There was muttering in the audience; someone remarked: "We've been paying the wholesale rate," and the speaker dropped the subject.

$20,000 Is Made Available To Draw Plans For Jr. High Gym

Following a discussion during which it was brought out that Arlington's bonded indebtedness today is only $5,000—placing the town in a most enviable position—members of the town meeting on Friday voted a $20,000 appropriation to draw up plans and specifications for a new gym-auditorium addition to Junior High School West.

The town meeting's action thus paved the way for a construction appropriation next year, and erection of the building probably during 1949.

The finance committee opposed the $20,000 appropriation, advocating instead the earmarking of only $4,000 for the project.

George A. Harris, speaking for the larger "and more adequate" sum, said that Arlington today has $1,116,000 in cash reserves, a debt of only $5,000 and a credit of $280,000.

"Never in our history have we been so well off," said Harris, "and certainly we can afford to build a needed school auditorium."

Easter Drama To Be Staged

Ten talented members of the Couples Club of Trinity Baptist Church will present as their first production an Easter drama, "The Seamless Robe," this Sunday evening. There will be no admission, and all are welcome.

Special musical talent has been obtained including Thomas Saundred, a fine baritone; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clare, a duet team, and Mrs.

First Robin

In an "I Wonder" in last week's Press, the question was asked: "I wonder who will report the first robin?"

The answer is: Mrs. Harvey E. Coulombe, 24 Randolph St., who phoned the press early Monday morning.

"I've just seen the first robin. He's still outside. And, he looks WONDERFUL."

Herbert Wallace, soprano.

The cast of the drama will include: William Anderson, Virginia Anderson, Rene Arnaud, Florence Bretscher, Mildred Clark, Ralph Damon, Katherine Higgins, Christine Jones, Edward Stacey and Harold White.

Fire Capts. Tierney And Flynn Become Deputy Chiefs Sun.

Effective next Sunday, Fire Capts. Richard Tierney and Charles J. Flynn will become deputy chiefs of the Arlington Fire Department.

Appointment of the two deputies from a list of four eligibles, was announced at roll call last Thursday by Chief Daniel B. Tierney. The other two qualified for the vacancies were Capts. McGreevy and Egan.

Both of the new appointees have held the rank of captain since 1933, and Capt Tierney since Jan. 12, 1947, has been acting deputy.

Deputy-elect Tierney, who lives at Appleton Place, joined the department as a permanent fireman in 1925. He became a lieutenant in 1930, and a captain in 1933. He and Mrs. Tierney have three children: Mrs. Joseph O'Toole, and the Misses Mary and Anne Tierney.

Deputy-elect Flynn became a call fireman in 1923, and a regular member of the department in 1925. He was promoted to a lieutenant in 1930, and became captain in 1933.

He and Mrs. Tierney, who reside at 11 Exeter St., have six children: Ruth, 25; Dorothy, 23; Paul, 20; Peter and Eugene, twins, 18; and Herbert, 13.

Mr. Flynn took a leading part in the recent successful campaign for a 48-hour week in the fire department, as chairman of the Firemen's 48-hour week Committee.

James Libby, 9, of 129 Hillside Ave., was treated by Dr. James P. Powell Saturday after being bitten on the right elbow by a dog, on Appleton St. The owner of the dog was located and the animal ordered restrained.

They Learn To Make Tools, Radios-Even Television Sets-at High School

ONLY TWO YEARS OLD but well equipped largely because of the acquisition of government war surplus machinery, Arlington Vocational High School is preparing an ever-increasing number of ambitious young men for careers as expert machinists, auto mechanics and radio technicians. This year's enrollment of 72 is expected by Director Arthur E. Robinson (lower right) to increase to about 120 next year. Second year machinist student Ronald Simonds (upper left) operates a power press; lower left photo shows Charles J. Anton instructing Ralph Zwicker in the operation of a large lathe. In upper right picture, Instructor Edward Pine discusses the workings of a radio set with some of Arlington's future radiomen who, incidentally, will soon undertake construction of a complete television receiver.

It's Being Done at Willow Run!

Kaiser-Frazer Introduces Four New 1948 Models

• The 1948 KAISER • The 1948 KAISER CUSTOM
• The 1948 FRAZER • The 1948 FRAZER MANHATTAN

AT NO INCREASE IN PRICE!

While Other New Car Prices Are Advancing

HERE'S WHY Kaiser-Frazer can make this announcement while other new car prices spiral upward. Kaiser-Frazer controls its own supply of many basic raw materials . . . has its own engine plant, foundry and steel mill. Materials from these sources funnel into new and modern Willow Run—the largest automobile manufacturing plant in the world under one roof.

Unfinished steel goes in one end of this great plant and comes out a quality automobile, ready to be driven away. All this is accomplished in a matter of hours, and with the economy of Kaiser-Frazer straight-line production. This is an achievement of men who are injecting new methods and ideas into an old industry.

In the new 1948 Kaiser, Frazer, Kaiser Custom, and Frazer Manhattan you get all the features that others have attempted to copy since Kaiser-Frazer design was introduced in 1947.

So far no one has been able to more than approximate the graceful exterior body lines. No one has come near matching the roadability . . . the ride resulting from seats cradled between the front and rear wheels, such wide seats with both elbow and shoulder room. And none have the style features, the wide choice of colors and fabrics.

You get all this plus the many refinements made possible by years-ahead engineering and design. And, of course, all 1948 Kaiser or Frazer cars have the new Goodyear 24-pound pressure Super-Cushion tires that make bumps something you see but never feel.

Enjoy a ride today in America's newest new cars—the 1948 cars that have not gone up in price!

Wherever you drive, wherever you go, round the corner, down the street, there is a Kaiser-Frazer dealer ready to serve you with genuine factory parts and approved service.

We Invite You to SEE, DRIVE and COMPARE Them, Today!
